Tour de cure

HAVING already raised more than $1 million to date, the third annual Tour de Cure, an annual bike ride that raises much needed funds for Australian cancer charities, will arrive in Gladstone on Sunday. A group of more than 50 Australian men and women comprise the Tour de Cure team, who will be in the midst of a 1,555km marathon journey from Brisbane to Cairns, all in the name of raising money for the Prostate Cancer Foundation of Australia, the National Breast Cancer Foundation, Camp Quality, The Leukaemia Foundation, and Cancer Council Australia. Gladstone will be the third official pit stop on the 2009 Tour de Cure, which aims to raise $650,000 this year alone.
